

COURT HOUSE

TO QUIET TITLE.

A suit for the quieting of title to Canton realty was filed in common pleas court yesterday by Attorneys Welty and Albaugh on behalf of Charles E. Hilden. The plaintiff claims to be the owner of parts of lots 242 and 243. He also states that the defendant, John Fornas and others, claim to have certain interests in the property but that their exact nature is unknown to him. He asks that they be compelled to set forth their claims in an answer and that on the final hearing of the case they be declared null and void.

ALLOWED BILLS.

The county commissioners at their regular meeting yesterday allowed the semi-monthly salaries of court house employees and officials and approved the following bills: G. A. Wolf, $3; Barrett Bros., $7.50; A. G. Klingaman, $37.46; M. Duprez, $72.94; J. A. Hurford, $7; Guy Tilden, $144; Rev. Gardner, $41.66; Anderson Co., $8; J. C. Fisher, $62.15; Rojler Printing Co., $26.

COURT ASSIGNMENT.

The trial assignment for the first week of the September term of court, in Judge Harter's section of common pleas by Deputy Clerk of Courts Agler. Judge Harter will likely be the only judge to open court as Judge Ambler will likely open court in Carroll county.

At 10 o'clock next Monday morning Judge Harter will empanel the grand jury and after being charged and instructed they will commence their investigations. The number of cases which will go to that body is greater than for a number of years and the session is likely to be a long and busy one. Already 28 persons have been held to that body by the inferior courts of the county and it is likely that a number of others will be called up before the session is concluded. The assignment of cases is as follows: Monday—Impanelling grand jury; motions, Peffer vs. Peffer; Edney vs. Reeves; Moore vs. L. E. A. and W. railroad; Graham vs. Insurance company; News Democrat Co. vs. Canton News Co.

Tuesday—Young vs. Pennsylvania Co.; Schlott vs. city of Canton; Henderson's administrator vs. Canton L. H. & P. Co.; Ohio vs. Wolf; Davis vs. city of Alliance.

Wednesday—Gangham vs. American Clay and Fertilizer Co.; Howenstein vs. County Commissioners; Sterling vs. Stark Electric Railroad Co.; Roof vs. Klein & Heffelman Co.; Craven vs. Scranton.

Thursday—Novelty Iron Co. vs. Charnois; Gray vs. Muller; Rossalle Canning Co. vs. Bal-Johnson Co.; Stark Telephone Co. vs. Stark Electric Railway Co.; Timken Roller Bearing Axle Co. vs. Hockett.

Friday—Crowl vs. Schlemmer et al; Keith vs. Schlemmer et al; Cona vs. American Steel Foundries; Dorrance vs. Oliver; Huff vs. city of Massillon.

NEW CASES.

MILLERSBURG.

Millersburg, Sept. 8.—John A. McDowell, of this place, the Democratic candidate for State School Commissioner, has accepted an offer from the school board of Ashland, O., to become the superintendent of the schools there.

The acceptance is on condition that he is not elected to the state commissionership. Mr. McDowell was in charge of the schools here for 20 years up to 1896, when he attended the Democratic congressional convention at Wooster in June of that year, and made the nominating speech placing S. B. Bailey, of this place, in nomination, and the speech caught the delegates to such an extent that he was named for the place himself and was elected by 4,000 majority, and re-elected and came very near getting a third nomination in 1900 at Neward, when J. W. Cassingham, of Coshocton, was named.

Mr. McDowell has few equals and no superiors as an educator and his services are in demand over the state at the county institutes, and if he polls as many Republican votes over the state as he will in Holmes county, he will be the next State School Commissioner.

The Lima brass band gave a festival and all around carnival of sports, Saturday night. A big crowd was entertained with climbing greased poles by moonlight and other athletic exercises. The band, led by Prof. Delbert Roath, played. Roy Dunsworth got a razor for climbing a big greased pole. Best looking man was Ross Wilson, of Marlboro. Prettiest young lady under 18, Miss Nola Whittlesey, of this place. Jack Kennedy cleared 11½ feet standing jump. Mrs. Stein Yoder tipped the scales at 235, and got a prize. Harvey Petre and wife were the youngest married couple and received a reward. Miss Aellig drove the most nails in the time allowed and took a prize. Not down on the program was a fight. A young man of Marlboro offended a young lady of Lima, who took a buggy whip to him. Her best fellow took it up with a smash in the face, but got a harder one in reply, and went down, but came up within the count and the next round was even honors. Outsiders stopped the mill then. Though an incorporated town and a calaboose in sight, no arrests were made.

The Stark County Pomona Grange meeting Saturday, at Charles Hamilton's and I. B. Bryan's, of New Baltimore, was a big success. More than 150 people from Louisville, New Berlin, Lexington, Atwater and Fairmount Grange drove through the clouds of dust to be present. Under a big tent a great feast was provided by Marlboro Grange for the crowds. The five-piece Rockhill and Flickinger orchestra played during the dinner hour at the elegant Hamilton home. The literary program was given across the road at Mr. Bryan's front yard. W. L. Marsh gave the address of welcome. Miss Ruth Shrop followed with an excellent reading. Miss Gladys Reidinger gave a violin solo, as did Prof. Delbert Roath, a vocal solo with a recall. Miss Verna Edson, of Cleveland, delighted everyone with a humorous selection and a recall that made sore sides for her hearers. Gladys Reidinger recited an original poem composed by her mother, Mrs. George Reidinger. The orchestra enlivened the program at frequent intervals. Charles Pontius told of the silo and its use, and a discussion followed on silo construction, wood and hollow tile, which was very instruct
